

PRIMARY & GENERAL 2008

Getting Your Information to Voters in Washington State

JUDICIAL EDITION

Services available to candidates from the Office of the Secretary of State

vote.wa.gov

The Office of the Secretary of State provides two convenient ways for judicial candidates to communicate to voters free of charge. This year, voters will receive Voters' Pamphlets prior to both the August 19 Primary and November 4 General Election. This information will also be posted on the Secretary of State's website.

Guidelines for Submitting Candidate Information

- Submit within seven days of filing for office.
- Submit statement, biography, photo, and candidate information together.
- Submit statement and biography according to word limits and standards (see following). Example provided on back.
- Submit photo conforming to specifications (see next column).
- In order to submit online, a candidate must provide an email address at the time of filing. Once you submit your statement, no changes will be allowed.
- Candidates nominated to the General Election are welcome to submit a new statement within seven days after the Primary.

Statements & Biographies

Word limits - Statement

State law sets a maximum word limit of 200 words for judicial candidate statements (RCW 29A.32.121).

Word limits - Biography

A biography, using the following headings, can also be included and must not exceed 100 words (headings are not included in the word count).

- Current Occupation/Employer
- Legal/Judicial Experience
- Significant Career Experience
- Education
- Family

Hyphenated words count as two words unless the hyphenation is listed in the OneLook directory, an online dictionary search.

All statements are closely reviewed. Those exceeding the word limit are shortened by deleting full sentences from the end until the limit is reached.

Statement & Biography Standards

The Office of the Secretary of State has established content, style, and format standards to ensure candidate statements comply with legal requirements, enhance readability, and ensure accuracy. Statements and biographies:

- Must accompany completed candidate information and photo;
- Must comply with the Code of Judicial Conduct. (The Administrative Office of the Courts is available to review your statement for compliance prior to submission. Contact Ms. Nancy Sullins at (360) 357-2124);
- Must be typewritten and double-spaced in block paragraph style (if submitted by mail), on a CD in Word, and accompanied by a printed copy;
- Must use 12 point regular Times Roman font. (Use italics only to emphasize specific words or statements. Bolding is not allowed);
- Must not include tables, lists, or other material requiring multiple indents or formatting;
- May include bullets. (However, vertically listed bullet points will be wrapped into a single paragraph);
- Will be rejected if containing obscene, profane, libelous, or defamatory language; and
- May have incidental spelling, grammar, and punctuation errors corrected without altering meaning or substance.

Photographs

Each candidate may submit one original self-portrait. If mailed, the photograph may be submitted digitally on a CD, or as a lab-processed print. Photos:

- Must be limited to the head and shoulders;
- Must be against a light-colored background (not white);
- May be color or black-and-white;
- Must be no more than five years old; and
- Must not show the uniform or insignia of any organization that advocates or teaches racial or religious intolerance, or suggests the wearer has held public office. Wearing a judicial robe is prohibited. (RCW 29A.32.110)

Digital photo

- Must be a resolution of at least 300 dpi and not digitally touched-up or altered.

Print photo

- Must be a smooth, no gloss, lab-processed print (not one printed from a home computer).
- Should be no smaller than 4 x 5 inches and no larger than 8 x 10 inches.

Statement FAQ

Answers to your statement-writing questions

What should I write?

Keep it simple and write in the narrative. Voters want to know why they should vote for you. Here are a few tips.

1. Describe your education, background and/or qualifications.
2. Avoid technical terms that may not be generally understood.
3. Offer your vision. Be positive.
4. Avoid criticism of opponents.

Do I have to write it myself?

No. If you are not a good writer, ask someone to help you. If someone else writes it, be sure you read it before submitting it.

How should my statement be formatted?

Since the space for your statement is limited, the format is very important.

- Format it as an essay (block style).
- To emphasize selected words, use italics only.
- Avoid special formatting using multiple indentations.
- Avoid lists. (These require too much space.)

May I use bullets?

Bullets may be used. However, avoid using them in a vertically listed format. For example:

Correct format

Background: • UW graduate
• Teacher • Planning
Commission member

Incorrect format

Background:
• UW graduate
• Teacher
• Planning Commission
member

Although you may like the look of the vertically listed version, there is not enough space available when the maximum number of words is used.

Is my campaign information published?

Yes, as long as you complete the Candidate Information form (on the back page) authorizing its publication. Address, telephone number, email, and website are published in addition to your statement (and not included in your word count). Be sure your campaign contact email and web address are functional when you submit your statement.

May I submit my statements and photo online?

Yes, go to www.vote.wa.gov/candidatestatement to submit online -- as long as you provided an email address at the time of filing for office. Please note that once you click the "submit" button, you no longer have online access to your statement, so review it carefully before clicking "submit."

If I submit online, should I mail a copy also?

No. This only confuses the process. If you have questions about the online process you completed, just call the Voters' Pamphlet Office at (425) 788-7878.

Do I receive a draft? If so, may I change it?

A courtesy copy of your processed statement is mailed to you. Read it carefully. Please notify the Voters' Pamphlet Office if you find an error. No other changes will be accepted.

What are the deadlines?

For the Primary, the information must be received within seven days of filing for office. The deadline for the General is no later than seven days after the Primary.

NOTE: If you do not submit a new statement for the General Election your Primary statement is used.

Photo FAQ

Answers to your questions

Professional photo or snapshot?

Professional photographs reproduce the best. If you choose to have an amateur take your photo, here are some tips.

1. A neutral background is best.
2. Take numerous shots. Area should be softly lit to avoid facial and background shadows.
3. If digital, make sure the resolution is 300 dpi or better.
4. Print the photos and choose the best one.
5. If digital, place the best photo on a CD. If film, have a photo lab print a 4 x 5 inch, smooth, no gloss, finished photo.

Is a photo printed from my home computer OK?

No. A photo printed from your home computer will not reproduce well in the Voters' Pamphlet. If you have a photo on your home computer, save it on to a CD and submit the CD.

Do I submit a new photo with my General Election statement?

No. The same photo you submitted in the Primary is used in the General Election.
